Information for people with diabetes using NovoPen Echo or NovoPen 5

- Health Canada is advising Canadians that Novo Nordisk A/S has updated a voluntary recall of insulin cartridge holders used in certain lots of its NovoPen Echo and NovoPen 5 insulin pens. The company detected that the cartridge holders may crack or break if exposed to certain chemicals, such as some cleaning agents.

What you should do:

- Do not stop treatment without consulting your health care professional.
- Contact Novo Nordisk Customer Service in order to receive an unaffected cartridge holder for your NovoPen Echo or NovoPen 5 product, or if you have any questions about this recall. You can contact the company by calling 1-800-465-4434, or email NNCI_CustomerCare@novonordisk.com

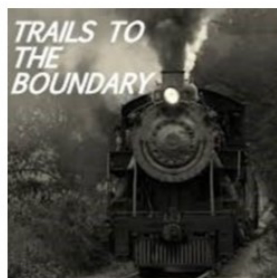

New Resident Survey - Are you new to Midway?

Please take a few minutes to complete the attached survey from Community Futures and the BEDC to help them learn more about the growing and changing population. Completed surveys can be returned to Sandy Elzinga at Community Futures via email sandy@boundarycf.com or if you do not have access to a scanner the Village office can also return completed surveys.
