Staff Report – Item 9(a)

Date: June 9, 2025
To: Chief Administrative Officer
From: Fire Chief
Subject: Fire Department - Command vehicle award

File No: 0640-30

RECOMMENDATION:

THAT Council approves the purchase of a command vehicle for $62,481.27 (excluding GST) from the Fire Department apparatus and equipment reserve.

AND THAT Council approves for the successful proponent Bannister Ford Penticton for a contract price of $58,393.71 plus GST and PST.

ISSUE/PURPOSE:

To seek approval from Council for funds for a command vehicle replacement, and to seek approval from Council to award the purchase.

BACKGROUND:

The current command vehicle has experienced mechanical issues where the cost of repairs outweighs the value of the asset. The current vehicle is of age and should be replaced with a more reliable vehicle for emergency operations.

Staff explored other purchase options, this vehicle had the lowest kilometers and meet the required needs of the fire department. Staff are requesting an approval from Council for the purchase of the vehicle.

FINANCIAL/BUDGETARY IMPLICATIONS:

In the 2025 Capital Plan a budget of $60,000.00 was approved by Council for a command vehicle replacement, with funds to be allocated from the fire department apparatus and equipment reserve fund. The total cost of the purchase including PST will be $62,481.27. Additional safety features will be required on the vehicle. Staff are proposing that safety feature items are expensed from the FLNRO surplus fund.

STRATEGIC PRIORITY:

Quality of Life – Safety

The command vehicle will enhance firefighter and community safety, ensure prompt response and be utilized for moving personnel to training events, conferences or courses.

*"Grad

Dear Donor:

The Kettle Valley Bursary & Scholarship Society is once again starting its annual fundraising drive in support of the 2025 Graduating Class of Boundary Central Secondary School.

Increasing tuition fees make it very difficult for our promising young students to afford post secondary education. Bursaries & Scholarships are a way to help our local youth continue their education.

If you are considering a donation for the first time or have donated before please note that no amount is too small and all donations are tax deductible.

With your assistance the Society has been helping our local graduating classes since 1965. Please continue this fine tradition by filling in the pledge sheet below & mailing it to the address on the form.

Thank you in advance for helping this year's graduating class reach their goals!

Sincerely,
The Kettle Valley Bursary & Scholarship Society (250-449-8303)

Dear Mayor Douglas McMynn,

Re: Sylx Okanagan Briefing Package for Local Governments on US-based Tribes Asserting Rights and Interests in the Arrow Lakes and Boundary/Kootenay Regions of Canada

The Chief's Executive Council (CEC) of the Sylx Okanagan Nation is taking a stand against US-Based Tribes aggressively seeking rights and benefits within Canada.

This issue dates back to the 2021 Supreme Court of Canada decision in Desautel, which resulted in imminent complications and challenges that must be addressed by First Nations, the federal and provincial governments. Importantly, local governments must respect and wait for clear direction from these higher levels of government, prior to engaging with US-based Tribes in the Arrow Lakes and Boundary/Kootenay regions. For the first time, the Court found that "Aboriginal peoples of Canada" can include Aboriginal groups that are located outside of Canada in the United States.

In the wake of this decision, American-based tribes in Alaska and Washington states have begun asserting rights and title in Canada. Many US Tribes along the length of our border with the United States are now seeking governance roles, and to be consulted and accommodated (including through revenue sharing), on Canadian matters of both national and local interest: natural resource projects, environmental assessments, conservation and restoration initiatives, among others.

In particular, we continue to have grave concerns about the increasingly aggressive assertions of the "Sinixt Confederacy," a society created and funded by the American-based Colville Confederated Tribes (CCT) of Washington State, to exclusive rights and title in Sylx Okanagan Territory in what is now known as British Columbia. CCT is a United States Federally recognised Tribe, and Canadian governments should not allow double dipping for U.S. tribes like the CCT, who already receive hundreds of millions of dollars in U.S. federal funding, including for hydroelectric power impacts on the U.S.-side of the Columbia River.

Enclosed is a backgrounder on the Sinixt Confederacy and CCT, Sylx Okanagan Nation's position, and an update on an emerging consensus on engagement and consultation, led by the provincial and federal governments. Considering CCT's stated positions and goals, the way local governments respond to CCT's claims can set harmful precedents with far-reaching implications and further feed family conflict by choosing sides. In addition to engagement, providing territorial and other acknowledgement in recognition or support of the Sinixt Confederacy or CCT territorial rights is incorrect, dismissive of Syilx Okanagan Nation's rights, and creates division. Now is the time to pause and carefully reflect on what level of recognition and engagement is appropriate when considering a US group's claims on local governments and regions, while continuing to prioritize reconciliation with First Nations located in Canada. Remember, Canada is not, and will never be, the 51st state!

To discuss further, please contact Chief Robert Louie, the CEC's designated lead on Sinixt Issues (rlouie@wfn.ca).

BRIEFING INFORMATION

BACKGROUND

- Syilx Okanagan Nation have exercised our rights and responsibilities within our territory, including the Arrow Lakes and Columbia River Basin, since time immemorial.
- The truth is the Sinixt have always been part of the Syilx Okanagan Nation, just like other nsyilxcan-speaking communities.
- We have one language, one culture, one land, and one people.
- In 2021, the Supreme Court of Canada ruled in R. v. Desautel that a U.S. citizen and member of the U.S.-half of our previously unified nation, Washington-based Colville Confederated Tribes (CCT), had an Aboriginal right to hunt Elk in Canada.
- There was no finding in Desautel that there is a rights-bearing entity known as the "Sinixt Nation," and no decisions concerning Aboriginal title. The courts found that the Lakes Tribe of the CCT is "a" successor group representing people of Sinixt ancestry and made it clear that there may be other successor groups in Canada.
- The Chiefs Executive Council (CEC) represent the Syilx Okanagan Nation in Canada, including the Sinixt.

THE PROBLEM

- Following Desautel, American-based tribes in Alaska and Washington have begun asserting rights and title in Canada and are now seeking governance roles, and to be engaged, consulted, and accommodated, on Canadian matters of national, provincial, and local interest: natural resource projects, environmental assessments, conservation and restoration initiatives, among others.
- The Syilx Okanagan Nation has always been willing to engage in discussions with CCT to resolve differences, but after years of collaboration and cooperation with Syilx Okanagan, CCT has turned away from our previous Syilx Unity Declaration.
- For a full account, please read Chief Robert Louie's October 2024 opinion editorial in the Vancouver Sun newspaper.
- CCT now claims some of their members make up a "Sinixt Confederacy" representing a distinct Nation separate from the Syilx Okanagan with its own rights and title in Canada.
- CCT seeks to rewrite history by claiming the Arrow Lakes as its exclusive area and is trying to exclude us from our own territory.
- CCT want consultation, revenue sharing and compensation in Canada, including on significant issues like hydroelectric power impacts (for which they are already compensated on the US-side of the border), and the Big White expansion.

SYILX OKANAGAN POSITION

- Our history and position are clear: the Sinixt people are part of the Syilx Okanagan Nation, and we are the legal and political representatives of Sinixt people in Canada.
- We support the limited right of our CCT relatives to hunt for Elk in parts of B.C. as recognized in Desautel, but when it comes to engagement, consultation, rights and title, Syilx Okanagan Nation in Canada must always be the priority and primary focus of governments – including local governments - in Canada.
- Contrary to the Sinixt Confederacy narrative that they have been excluded from the Columbia River Treaty negotiations between Canada and the US, CCT representatives in fact participate as part of the United States' delegation in those negotiations. CCT already receives hundreds of millions of dollars in U.S. federal funding, including for hydroelectric power impacts on the U.S.-side of the Columbia River which are supported by CRT flows.
- There should be no opportunity for US-Tribes like the CCT to "double dip" by seeking engagement, consultation, revenue sharing and compensation north of the Border. Furthermore, local governments should not legitimize such claims or further exacerbate existing conflict by engaging with US-Tribes, at the expense of Canadian First Nations whose Territory includes the Arrow Lakes and Kootenay/Boundary regions.

A PATH FORWARD – NEED FOR A UNIFIED FEDERAL, PROVINCIAL AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT POLICY AND ACTION

- Syilx Okanagan Nation has urged the government of Canada to adopt a principled policy approach that prioritizes Canadian-based First Nations and protects Canadian interests while remaining consistent with the limited judicial guidance offered by the SCC in Desautel. This approach is already being adopted and implemented provincially and is receiving a favourable response federally. Local governments must apprise themselves of these developments and manage their own engagement efforts accordingly, or risk further exacerbating conflict by appearing to choose sides.
- In a joint statement with Chief Robert Louie, Premier Eby committed to a shared policy process with Syilx Okanagan Nation to address the issues posed by Desautel, and affirmed that First Nations in BC must always be the priority and primary focus of all levels of government. The Province of BC is working with the Syilx Okanagan Nation and other BC First Nations to develop a provincial policy framework regarding consultation with US-based groups. This policy is expected to be finalized later this year.
- The BC government recognizes that the Federal government has an important role to play in addressing the challenges of Desautel, which have significant national implications.
- The reality is that there are important differences between Canadian and US-based Aboriginal peoples:
 - US-based groups are not subject to Canadian law outside the territorial bounds of Canada.

- US-based groups may already have input, through participating in US regulatory processes, into projects that affect their interests and may in fact have a different position, articulated to US governments, than what First Nations in Canada are articulating.
- US-based groups may already be accommodated for impacts on their rights by US government or US-based entities.
- The governance, number, and composition of US-based groups may not be readily known to either the Canadian government or Canadian Aboriginal groups.
- The extent of cumulative effects on a US-based group cannot be known when portions of their territory are within the bounds of the US.
- Any policy should consider the following:
 - While Aboriginal communities outside Canada can assert and hold s. 35(1) Aboriginal rights, it does not follow that their rights are the same as those of First Nations communities within Canada.
 - If a US-based Aboriginal peoples of Canada has or asserts s.35 rights, that does not automatically mean they should be engaged, consulted, or accommodated in the same way First Nations in Canada are.
 - As recognized by the Supreme Court in Desautel, the duty to consult may operate differently as regards those outside Canada. Because groups outside Canada are not implicated to the same degree in the process of fair dealing and reconciliation which arises from the Crown's assertion of sovereignty, the scope of the Crown's duty to consult with them, and the manner in which it is given effect, may differ.
 - Members of US Tribes do not reside in Canada and are not Canadian citizens, and US Tribes are not impacted by Crown actions in Canada in the same way the First Nations located in Canada are.
 - The Crown must balance interests of Canadian-based Aboriginal groups with interests of US-based groups, and consider the relationship between Canadian and US based Aboriginal peoples, and proportionality of accommodation when considering the extent of its duty to consult US-based groups
 - As a result of these factors, in most cases, any engagement and consultation with US-based Tribes should be at the notification and information-sharing level only. Co-management and revenue-sharing regimes should not be provided as accommodation measures to US Tribes in areas of First Nations' territories in Canada.
 - As suggested by the Supreme Court of Canada, the Crown should have discussions with Canadian-based Aboriginal groups regarding consultation with US-based Aboriginal peoples, so that there is clarity about issues such as Indigenous laws and governance.
 - First Nations located in Canada must always be the priority and primary focus of all levels of government, including local governments.

As stated previously, in addition to engagement, providing territorial and other acknowledgement in recognition or support of the Sinixt Confederacy or CCT territorial rights is incorrect, dismissive of Syilx Okanagan Nation's rights, and creates division. Now is the time to pause and carefully reflect on what level of recognition and engagement is appropriate when considering a US group's claims on local governments and regions, while continuing to prioritize reconciliation with First Nations located in Canada.

Dear Mayors and Board Chairs:

On June 30, 2025, we will pass the one-year anniversary when most local governments implemented the Small-Scale Multi-Unit Housing (SSMUH) requirements. As I reflect on this historic change, I want to thank you and your staff for the hard work you have undertaken to achieve this important zoning reform. We are now starting to see a range of housing types in the planning and building stages advance across the province to deliver diverse options in what were traditionally restrictive single-family neighbourhoods.

We have been monitoring progress on implementation and are seeing many local governments championing SSMUH by speeding up or waiving unnecessary processes and requirements and creating or adopting standardized housing designs. In these communities, we are starting to see strong uptake of SSMUH.

However, monitoring has also identified ongoing barriers to building SSMUH, including inconsistency in how some local governments have applied the requirements and site-level conditions. In places, restrictive and excessive site standard requirements are adding additional costs, time, and uncertainty to SSMUH development. Areas that did not fully adopt SSMUH as intended and communities with onerous, ambiguous, or subjective form and character development permit requirements are reducing the viability of building new small-scale multi-unit housing. As a result of these barriers, it is still easier to build single-family homes in many communities, and the diversity of housing needed by people in our communities is still not being met.

I am writing today to encourage you to review your bylaws and requirements for alignment with the guidelines in the SSMUH Provincial Policy Manual and Site Standards. Specifically, please ensure you have progressive site standards for three-to-six-unit developments by allowing building heights of 3 storeys and 11 metres, aligning with the policy manual site standards packages for lot coverage.

Communities should also enable all housing configurations and types and should not use form and character development permit area requirements for small-scale multi-unit housing, as they can cause delays that interfere with the viability of projects. For three-to-four-unit projects, you should consider aligning with the recommended one parking space per unit in your parking minimums, leaving it to home builders to determine if more parking is appropriate for the location. And for those of you that have areas in your community that don't yet comprehensively allow for it, I ask that you ensure that your zoning allows SSMUH on all lots that allow single family residential, duplexes, and houses with a secondary suite and accessory dwelling unit.

People in our province need the greater diversity of housing that these changes are designed to unlock, and our government has a responsibility to act where these needs remain unmet. If all local governments do not align with the guidelines and intent of the legislation, it is my intention to continue to strengthen the legislated requirements to ensure more consistent standards are established across the province. Greater alignment with the requirements and guidelines will help encourage SSMUH development and increase the supply of the homes that people in our communities need, and moving forward in earnest now will minimize your future work to align with any forthcoming legislative changes.

I recognize that the vast majority of communities have been taking action and are seeing the benefits of their action in new housing coming forward in their communities. To those who continue to demonstrate leadership by enabling the conditions for these homes to be built, I offer my sincere appreciation for the work that you and your staff are undertaking.

Sincerely,

Ravi Kahlon

Re: BCUC Order Number G-126-25 – FortisBC Public Safety Power Shutoff (PSPS) Policy Comment Period

Dear Commissioners,

I am writing to express serious concern regarding FortisBC's proposed Public Safety Power Shutoff (PSPS) policy, concerns that are being raised directly by my constituents. While I appreciate the intent to reduce wildfire ignition from electrical infrastructure, this policy risks creating greater harm than it prevents—particularly for rural communities like those in Boundary-Similkameen.

Under the proposed plan, FortisBC may cut power to entire communities for up to 72 hours during forecasted wildfire conditions. Yet by FortisBC's own estimation, the conditions that would have triggered such a shutdown have occurred only once in the past ten years. This raises a fundamental question: are we trading a rare ignition risk for a much more probable and widespread public emergency?

The potential impacts of a PSPS event are deeply concerning:

- Public Health Risks: Extended outages during periods of extreme heat could endanger vulnerable residents—particularly seniors, medically dependent individuals, and young children—who rely on powered cooling systems and medical equipment.
- Communication Failures: Fibre-based phone systems and internet infrastructure depend on electricity. A prolonged outage would render emergency alert systems, including 911, inoperable in many rural areas.
- Loss of Critical Services: Most rural cooling centres lack backup power and have limited capacity. Even under normal conditions, these facilities are insufficient in my region.
- Economic Harm: Power outages of this nature can devastate local businesses, disrupt farming operations, and result in the spoilage of entire harvests.
- Burden on Local Governments: Emergency Management BC policies currently do not fund planned outages, meaning local governments and First Nations would be left to bear the entire financial and logistical burden of responding to a PSPS activation.
- Lack of Infrastructure Mapping and Response Plans: Conversations with FortisBC make clear they are still working with communities to identify critical infrastructure. Communities need more time to prepare their own response plans.
- Vulnerable Citizens Asked to Self-Register: FortisBC appears to be relying on vulnerable individuals to self-register. What is unclear is what happens next—will those individuals receive backup power, evacuation support, or wellness checks if they cannot be reached? The current plan does not provide adequate assurances.

With wildfire season already upon us, I urge the Commission to reject approval of the PSPS policy in its current form until the following conditions are met:

1. A thorough risk-benefit analysis is conducted comparing wildfire ignition likelihood with the health, safety, and economic risks of a pre-emptive shutoff.
2. A comprehensive emergency support and reimbursement framework is established for affected communities, with specific provisions for rural and Indigenous areas.
3. Detailed plans are presented for safeguarding communication systems, medical needs, and cooling facilities.
4. Transparent, timely, and meaningful consultation with affected communities is required prior to any PSPS activation.
5. Each individual who registers as a “Vulnerable Person” with FortisBC is contacted and provided with a clear, actionable plan for assistance, including contingencies if they cannot be reached during an event.

The power grid is not just an economic asset—it is a lifeline. Any policy that removes that lifeline must be subject to the highest level of scrutiny. British Columbians deserve wildfire prevention policies that protect both public safety and human dignity.

Sincerely,

Donegal Wilson

RDKB Awarded REDIP Funding to Strengthen Regional Economic Development

June 6, 2025

The Regional District of Kootenay Boundary (RDKB) is pleased to announce it has been awarded just under $500,000 in funding through the Province of British Columbia's Rural Economic Diversification and Infrastructure Program (REDIP). This investment will support a two-year regional initiative aimed at strengthening economic development capacity and fostering long term economic resilience throughout the Boundary Region.

This marks the second successful REDIP application for the Boundary. The first round of funding supported the creation of the Boundary and Midway Economic Diversification Plan, developed in response to the closure of the Vaagan Mill in Midway. The current round builds on that foundational work, advancing its recommendations and expanding its impact.

"Midway is thrilled to see the plan that began here move to the Boundary Region as a whole. We look forward to continuing to work on the priorities and actions from the diversification plan in conjunction with the Boundary Region," said Lisa Taggart, Chief Administration Officer for Village of Midway.

The newly funded project will focus on growing economic capacity in the West Boundary, attracting investment across the region, and strengthening the operations of existing economic development agencies. In addition, it will provide direct support for local businesses and entrepreneurs through specialized programming and services.

"We are pleased to see the Province investing in the next steps of this plan and showing their support for rural communities like the Boundary Region," said James Chandler, General Manager of Operations at the RDKB.

Community Futures Boundary will serve as the project manager, coordinating implementation and working closely with local governments, stakeholders, and economic development partners to ensure the project delivers measurable results. "We are very appreciative of the Provincial support and look forward managing this project on behalf of the RDKB. The project offers a unique opportunity to bring together local expertise and provincial support to strengthen the economic foundations of the Boundary Region," said Jennifer Wetmore, General Manager of Community Futures Boundary.

Key areas of focus include:

- Building economic capacity in the West Boundary to better serve rural and underserved communities.
- Launching regional investment attraction initiatives to draw new business and development opportunities.
- Supporting and aligning existing economic development agencies to ensure collaboration and efficiency.
- Delivering enhanced supports for businesses and entrepreneurs, including advisory services, youth entrepreneurship programs, and custom training workshops.
